

UNIVERSITY OF DAR ES SALAAM

COLLEGE OF HUMANITIES

HUMANITIES RESEARCH CENTRE

DOCTORAL SCHOLARSHIPS

The Humanities Research Centre in collaboration with the Re-centering AfroAsia Project, a multi-institutional project housed at the University of Cape Town, South Africa (www.afroasia.uct.ac.za) are pleased to announce two Doctoral scholarships open for students who have successfully completed their Masters and are interested in researching the cultural connections between Africa and the Indian Ocean world, within the period of the 1st millennium to 1500AD, in areas of Archaeology and Musicology.

Students shall be registered at the University of Dar es Salaam and are expected to contribute to the activities of the broader project, participate in seminars and workshops, and fulfill all required responsibilities of UDSM.

Requirements:

- A one-page concept note of intended research in either PhD (Archaeology) or PhD (Music)
- CV
- Academic transcripts
- References from at least 2 academics who you have worked with

Please submit applications to:

Director, Humanities Research Centre

Heritage Building, Rm 202/5

Email: pcohu@udsm.ac.tz

Deadline for submissions is 12:00 noon on Friday, 16 August 2019