CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

National Unity: Secular or Pluralistic?

Conference to commemorate 65 Years of the Spirit of Bandung,
14-15 December 2020, University of Dar es Salaam

The University of Dar es Salaam (Society and Religion Research Centre, Department of Sociology and Anthropology) and Radboud University Nijmegen (Faculty of Philosophy, Theology and Religious Studies, NIM Institute) call for submission of abstracts on “National Unity: Secular or Pluralistic?”

After independence most “non-aligned” countries opted for philosophies of national unity to guarantee peace and stability. In the case of Tanzania, this philosophy (Ujamaa) was secular (a-religious, although Tanzania had a “civic religion”). In the case of Indonesia, this philosophy (Pancasila) was “pluralistic” (recognizing six “official” religions). In both countries, the philosophy of national unity is contested. 65 years later, the question is: what philosophy succeeded in promoting peace and stability? Are there comparable examples from other countries?

SUB THEMES

Papers should focus (but not limited) on the following sub themes:

1. Revival of Philosophies of Unity: Ujamaa (Tanzania) and Pancasila (Indonesia). Did ujamaa and Pancasila succeed in creating/promoting unity through promoting religious pluralism, secularism and inclusiveness?
2. Ubuntu – how does/will Ubuntu philosophy help in creating unity?
3. How did religious institutions respond to these philosophies of unity through secularism?
4. Did other philosophies namely: Negritude, Humanism, Consciencism, etc succeed in promoting sustainable unity in their respective countries?
5. Is unity a product of an ideology? How do philosophy and/or religion inform an ideology?
6. What are the fundamental differences between philosophies of unity in Africa and Asia? – Are there fundamental common elements between these philosophies?
7. How can we use these philosophies of unity to promote tolerance and a global society which is multi-cultural and multi-religious?
8. How can we use these philosophies of unity to solve contemporary conundrums such as ethnicity, tribalism, bigotry, social exclusion, religious cleansing, ethnicity and tribal cleansing?
9. How can we use these philosophies of unity to promote regional integration and continental unity? - how can these philosophies of unity enhance effective functioning of the continental machineries such as African Union.
10. How do Oriental Philosophies and religions deal with the issue of unity, inclusiveness, secularism and pluralism (Hinduism, Buddhism, Jainism, Sikhism, Confucianism and etc.)?
