

UNIVERSITY OF DAR ES SALAAM

CALL FOR INTERNS – re-advertised

The University of Dar es Salaam Research Chair on Forced Displacement (UDSM-RCFD), under the Project “Strengthening knowledge, evidence use and leadership in the global south on forced displacement: with a focus on East Africa” hereby calls applications for interns (6 positions) to work with an NGO called Care and Assistance for Forced Migration (CAFOMI) working in Uganda for three-months undertaking duties given to them by the NGO.

The UDSM-RCFD is a multidisciplinary entity with members from Geography, Law, Sociology, Political Science, Economics, Development Studies, Business School, and Food sciences. Members conduct research in the following areas with a focus on East Africa (Uganda, Kenya, Burundi, Tanzania and Rwanda) displaced by conflicts, climate change or project and marginalized population such as indigenous and those about to be displaced, relocated and resettled with unfair little or no compensation focusing on livelihood, socio-ecological, legal, protection; gender equality, inclusive policy and agency of the displaced.

Eligibility:

Refugees in, or citizens of, Uganda who have completed a bachelor degree in one of the disciplines above degree and not engage in any other full-time job and are ready to start on January 1, 2024.

Application materials

- (i) Statement of interest outlining clearly the motivation for the application
- (ii) CV and names of two referees.
- (iii)

Application and Inquiries must be sent to Chair, Opportuna.kweka@gmail.com copy to kweka@udsm.ac.tz and saimwa8@yahoo.com

Deadline for receiving application is December 10th 2023.

UNIVERSITY OF DAR ES SALAAM

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS FOR RESEARCH SUPPORT FOR MASTERS IN FORCED DISPLACEMENT January to December, 2024 – Re-advertised

The University of Dar es Salaam Research Chair on Forced Displacement (UDSM-RCFD) under a research project titled: “Strengthening knowledge, evidence use and leadership in the global South on forced displacement: with a focus on East Africa” funded by the International Development Research Centre (IDRC) of Canada invites applications from a master candidate in a research year for support for research (4,..... T. Shs). The applicants must be working in one or more of the following topics:

- (i) Refugees, Internally Displaced Persons and asylum seekers from conflicts
- (ii) Internally Displaced Persons from climate –related disaster
- (iii) Development/projects induced displacement
- (iv) Marginalized/indigenous population facing exclusion, relocation or forced displacement

The UDSM-RCFD is a multidisciplinary Chair with members from Geography, Law, Sociology, Political Science, Economics, Development Studies, Business School, and Food Sciences and operates in Tanzania, Kenya, Uganda, Burundi and Rwanda, who conduct research on livelihood, socio-ecological, legal, protection; gender and inclusive policy issues of the displaced groups mentioned above and their agency.

Eligibility

Masters applicants must be citizens or refugees in one of these countries Tanzania, Uganda, Kenya, Rwanda, Burundi and hold active student status, with approved research proposal.

Application materials

Interested candidates should submit a cover letter; CV; approved research proposal; name and contact details of three referees (one should be from the main supervisor). Candidates should be prepared to start between in January 1st 2024.

Application and Inquiries: should be sent to the Chair: kweka@udsm.ac.tz, copy to: opportuna.kweka@gmail.com and fnamkesa@yahoo.com

Deadline:

The deadline for receiving application is December 10th 2023

UNIVERSITY OF DAR ES SALAAM

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS FOR RESEARCH SUPPORT FOR PHD AND A MASTERS IN FORCED DISPLACEMENT January to December, 2024 – Re-advertised

The University of Dar es Salaam Research Chair on Forced Displacement (UDSM-RCFD) under a research project titled: “Strengthening knowledge, evidence use and leadership in the global South on forced displacement: with a focus on East Africa” funded by the International Development Research Centre (IDRC) of Canada invites applications from a PhD candidate in a research year for support for research (12,500,000 T. Shs). The applicants must be working in one or more of the following topics:

- (i) Refugees, Internally Displaced Persons and asylum seekers from conflicts
- (ii) Internally Displaced Persons from climate –related disaster
- (iii) Development/projects induced displacement
- (iv) Marginalized/indigenous population facing exclusion, relocation or forced displacement

The UDSM-RCFD is a multidisciplinary Chair with members from Geography, Law, Sociology, Political Science, Economics, Development Studies, Business School, and Food Sciences and operates in Tanzania, Kenya, Uganda, Burundi and Rwanda, who conduct research on livelihood, socio-ecological, legal, protection; gender and inclusive policy issues of the displaced groups mentioned above and their agency.

Eligibility

- PhD applicants must be citizens or refugees in one of these countries Tanzania, Uganda, Kenya, Rwanda, and hold active student status, with approved research proposal.

Application materials

Interested candidates should submit cover letter; CV; approved research proposal; name and contact details of three referees (one should be from the main supervisor). Candidates should be prepared to start between in January 1st 2024.

Application and Inquiries: should be sent to the Chair: kweka@udsm.ac.tz, copy to: opportuna.kweka@gmail.com and fnamkesa@yahoo.com

Deadline:

The deadline for receiving application is December 10th 2023

UNIVERSITY OF DAR ES SALAAM

CALL FOR A POSTDOCTORAL RESEARCHER POSITION January 2024 to December 2024 (Re-advetised)

The Research Chair on Forced Displacement of the University of Dar es Salaam (UDSM-RCFD), under a research project titled: “Strengthening knowledge, evidence use and leadership in the global South on forced displacement: with a focus on East Africa” funded by the International Development Research centre (IDRC) of Canada, invites applications for a post-doctoral research position (one position) to work on research and publication (12,000,000 T. Shs.) in one or more of the following areas for one year:

- (i) Refugees, IDPS and asylum seekers from conflicts
- (ii) Internally Displaced Persons from climate-related disaster
- (iii) Development/project induced displacement
- (iv) Marginalized/indigenous population facing exclusion, relocation or forced displacement.

The UDSM-RCFD is a multidisciplinary Chair with members from Geography, Law, Sociology, Political Science, Economics, Development Studies, Business School, and Food Sciences and from Kenya, Uganda, Burundi, Tanzania and Rwanda with interest in livelihood, socio-economic, legal, gender and inclusive policy issues of the displaced and their agency.

Eligibility: A refugee in; or a citizen of; Tanzania, Uganda, Burundi, or Rwanda who have completed their PhDs in the past five years in any of the aforementioned disciplines.

Expectations from the candidate

The candidate is required to relocate to the University of Dar es Salaam where they will be provided with an office space, a desktop computer, access to the library, and a stipend and work under supervision of the Chair to publish some of their PhD works with additional research.

Selected candidates will have an opportunity to interact with a pool of more than 30 researchers from the different disciplines named above working on issues of displacement and take part in seminars, outreach and policy dialogues. In addition will assist the Chair in administrative works.

Application materials: Interested applicants should submit a cover letter expressing their interest to the position; a CV; a research proposal; a copy of sample written work related to forced displacement issues; name and contact information of three referees.

Inquiries and applications should be sent to: the Chair, Research Chair on Forced Displacement via email at opportuna.kweka@gmail.com copy to kweka@udsm.ac.tz and fnamkesa@yahoo.com

Application Deadline:

The deadline for receiving application is December 10th 2023.